

City of Richmond
Box 68
Richmond, Kentucky 40475

May 8, 1981

Office of Secretary of State
Capital Building
Frankfort, Kentucky 40601
Attn: Libby Horn

RECEIVED

MAY 11 1981

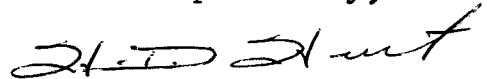

SECRETARY OF STATE
COMMONWEALTH OF KY.

Dear Ms. Horn,

Enclosed is the information needed to bring the City of Richmond in compliance with KRS 81.045 (Senate Bill 22).

- (1) Name of City: City of Richmond
- (2) Date Incorporated: 1808
- (3) Present Classification: 3rd Class City
- (4) Present Boundaries: Map Enclosed

Yours Respectfully,

H.D. Hurt, Director of Finance
City of Richmond

P.S. If additional information is needed please call H.D. Hurt, 606-623-3368.

DECEMBER SESSION.

1808.

CHAPTER XV.

An ACT to add part of Ohio County to the County of Henderson.

Approved January 16, 1809.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the general assembly, That from and after the first day of April next, all that part of Ohio county comprised within the following bounds, shall be added to and considered as part of the county of Henderson, to wit: beginning on the Ohio at the mouth of Green river and running up the Ohio to where the line of Henderson & Co's. grant strikes the same, thence with said line to Green river, thence down the same to the beginning.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the sheriff of the said county of Ohio, may lawfully after the first day of February next, distrain or collect all public dues and officers' fees from the inhabitants residing in the before mentioned township, which the said sheriff now is, or may be, before the said first day of April next, bound by law to collect.

This act shall commence, and be in force from and after the passage thereof.

CHAPTER XVI.

An ACT to legalize the proceedings of the Logan and Bracken County Courts.

Approved January 17, 1809.

The county courts of Logan had said the levy when there was not a majority of justice. The county court of Bracken had not sat on Monday, but did on Tuesday (the next day). These were the proceedings legalized.

CHAPTER XVII.

An ACT for the better regulation of the Town of Richmond, in Madison County.

Approved January 17, 1809.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly that the inhabitants of the town of Richmond, in the county of Madison, labor under many inconveniences in consequence of the laws regulating towns in this commonwealth, having proved ineffectual, and that it is necessary there should be some further regulations for the promotion of said town, and the benefit of its inhabitants; therefore

XVII. YEAR OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

1808.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the general assembly, That the trustees of the town of Richmond who are now in office shall continue, and they are hereby declared to be the trustees of said town until the fourth Monday in July next, on which day annually, there shall be an election, held at the court-house in said town, for the election of trustees, which shall be conducted by the clerk of the trustees then in office, and under their direction, and the said clerk shall give public notice by advertisement at the court-house, door and other public places in said town, one month next preceding the election in each year, and it shall also be the duty of the clerk when the election is closed, to enter on record in the book kept by him for the trustees of said town, the names of those persons duly elected as trustees aforesaid.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all the free male inhabitants living in the said town and limits thereof, who are of the age of twenty years, and entitled to vote in the election of a representative to the general assembly of Kentucky, to elect and choose annually on the fourth Monday in July, five trustees, which election shall be conducted by the clerk under the direction of the trustees as aforesaid. And the trustees of said town may elect their own clerk, who shall not be removed from office for one year next succeeding his election, unless for improper conduct in discharging the duties of his office, then, in that case, the trustees as aforesaid may remove him from office and proceed to the choice of another. The said trustees shall have the power to regulate and repair the streets and highways in said town, to remove nuisances and obstructions therein, at the expence of the party who occasioned them: Provided, That the party or parties will not remove them on receiving notice from the trustees aforesaid, and when such person or persons fail after having notice given them, to remove such nuisances or obstructions, the trustees shall on failure thereof immediately proceed to have it done, and when done, the trustees of said town may proceed by warrant before some justice of the peace of said county for the recovery of such sum or sums of money as may accrue in the removal of such nuisances or obstructions in said town.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all the free male inhabitants living in the said town and limits thereof, who are of the age of twenty years, and entitled to vote in the election of a representative to the general assembly of Kentucky, to elect and choose annually on the fourth Monday in July, five trustees, which election shall be conducted by the clerk under the direction of the trustees as aforesaid. And the trustees of said town may elect their own clerk, who shall not be removed from office for one year next succeeding his election, unless for improper conduct in discharging the duties of his office, then, in that case, the trustees as aforesaid may remove him from office and proceed to the choice of another. The said trustees shall have the power to regulate and repair the streets and highways in said town, to remove nuisances and obstructions therein, at the expence of the party who occasioned them: Provided, That the party or parties will not remove them on receiving notice from the trustees aforesaid, and when such person or persons fail after having notice given them, to remove such nuisances or obstructions, the trustees shall on failure thereof immediately proceed to have it done, and when done, the trustees of said town may proceed by warrant before some justice of the peace of said county for the recovery of such sum or sums of money as may accrue in the removal of such nuisances or obstructions in said town.

1808.
Trustees may impose taxes in any manner they may deem the most equitable, not exceeding the sum of seventy pounds annually on the tithables, and property real and personal, within the said town, and also to make such provisions and regulations as they may deem proper for the collecting and accounting for the taxes so imposed, by appointing a collector and directing a distress to be made in like manner as that of collecting the revenue in cases of delinquencies, and to make such by laws, ordinances, and regulations, not contrary to the laws and constitution of this commonwealth, as shall by a majority of them be thought necessary for carrying this act into effect.

Who eligible to shall be capable of being elected, or to act as a trustee, who is not a freeholder and inhabitant in said town; and no person residing in said town and limits shall be capable of being appointed, or act as a surveyor of any road without the same.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That no person who is not a freeholder and inhabitant in said town; and no person residing in said town and limits shall be capable of being appointed, or act as a surveyor of any road without the same.

How vacancies that may be occasioned by death, disqualification or otherwise, the remaining trustees shall as soon as may be, proceed to fill the vacancy from amongst the citizens of said town, who may be qualified as aforesaid; and when a trustee shall cease to be a freeholder and inhabitant, or resident of said town, he shall be considered disqualified, and another elected in his stead. Any act coming within the purview of this act shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

This act shall commence, and be in force from and after the passage thereof.

CHAPTER XVIII.

An ACT for the relief of John Upton's heirs.

Approved January 25, 1809.
They were infants, and their head-right land had been sold to the state for the payment of the first instalment. This act permitted their claim to be reinstated.

CHAPTER XIX.

An ACT allowing to Non-Residents whose Lands have been stricken off to the State by the Register in 1806, for Taxes, &c. further time to redeem the same.

Approved January 24, 1809.
The act referred to will be found in Vol. III, page 335.

1808.

BE it enacted by the general assembly, That the first term of two years from the passage of this act be allowed to such non-residents whose lands have been stricken off to the state by the register for the non-payment of the taxes, to redeem the same, and the rules and regulations prescribed in the act entitled "an act providing for the redemption of land sold for taxes," passed in 1806.

This act shall commence and be in force from and after the passage thereof.

CHAPTER XX.

An ACT for the relief of Silas M. Bee, John Jackson and John Moore.

Approved January 24, 1809.

They were proprietors of head-right lands. This act relieved them from some circumstances they had got into by erroneous and irregular proceedings.

CHAPTER XXI.

An ACT to legalize the proceedings of the County Courts of York and Washington Counties.

Approved January 24, 1809.

They had held their courts in 1807, but not authorized by law. This act legalized their proceedings.

CHAPTER XXII.

An ACT allowing John James and others further time to return certain Plats and Certificates.

Approved January 25, 1809.

CHAPTER XXIII.

An ACT for the relief of Thomas Adams.

Approved January 25, 1809.

He was a justice of the peace, and had solemnized a marriage, not being legally authorized to do so. This act released him from the penalties incurred.

CHAPTER XXIV.

An ACT authorizing the County Courts in this Commonwealth to establish Inspections.

Approved January 25, 1809.

BE it enacted by the general assembly, That the several county courts within this commonwealth, a major